Dear Sirs,

I am including this letter with my financials about work this year about the court fees for the civil lawsuit CV620-082. I started working as an enumerator for the Census Bureau for the Department of Commerce in August 2020. The Census has been up and down with work and they lay people off and hire people on as needed, so I cannot say they are steady short term work even though I did work two whole months from August to September.

I also have a job as a substitute. Before March of 2020, I worked whole months and made between $900 to $1000 a month. Starting back, I've only worked a little over a week this year so far. There are suspicions that the defendants, Weinstein, Robbins, and Dershowitz seek out personal information and employers and slander me to them to keep me from working, hence the lawsuit.

The financial statement attached is an estimate. I do have a new opportunity to work with the Census again this month but at this time, I do not have the details to show.

This is the best I can do at this moment, but things may change after legal battles are over.
